2. The Secretary shall keep a correct account of all the transactions, and take charge of all the papers and books of the society. Within ten days after the death of a member he shall notify all surviving members of the date of the death of such member, and also the date on which the obligation of such must be met, and shall countersign all orders for money to be paid out by the Treasurer. He shall also see that each member is provided with a proper certificate of membership, and the amount of benefit due his heirs at his death, and sign said certificate himself, and secure the signature of the President to the same.

3. The Treasurer shall keep safely all money belonging to the society, and shall disburse the same only on the order of the President, countersigned by the Secretary. Within thirty days after the death of a member, on the order of the President, countersigned by the Secretary, he shall pay to the heirs of such deceased member the amount of the benefit, one hundred and fifty dollars, herein prescribed. He shall give receipts for all moneys received, and take vouchers for all disbursed. He shall make a full report of all moneys received and disbursed to the regular meeting of the society at each Annual Conference session.

Article VI.

Transfer to another Conference of the United Brethren in Christ shall not forfeit membership; but any member who has been expelled, or has withdrawn from the Conference without its consent, forfeits his membership. Any person failing to pay the two dollars agreed upon within thirty days after the date of the notice of the death of a member, or his annual dues, as herein provided for, shall from that time cease to be a member, and shall have no claim upon any benefits of the society, and shall not be reinstated until all omitted obligations are paid in full.

Article VII.—Meetings.

A regular meeting of the society shall be held annually during the session of the Conference at the call of the President. At such annual meeting the officers of the society shall be elected, by ballot, and such other business transacted as may be in accordance with the object sought by the society. A majority of the members, other than honorary, shall constitute a quorum.

Article VIII.—Additional Notice.

All members who may not have paid within thirty days from the date of notice of the death of a member the agreed upon two dollars, shall be again notified by the Secretary of the time when the thirty days in which payment was to have been made expired, and shall be allowed ten days additional in which to pay the same; any member failing in this, his membership is forfeited.

Article IX.—Amendments.

This Constitution may be changed or amended by a vote of two-thirds of all the ministerial members present at a regular meeting of the society.

Song No. 23 was sung.

Bishop Weekley being present, he was called on by Bishop Mills to preside over the Conference during the afternoon. He is a graceful, easy, hustling presiding officer.

Dr. John Pierson, of the American Bible Society, addressed the Conference upon the importance of the work and the need of more funds with which to meet the pressing demands upon the society.

By motion, the Bishop appointed a standing committee on the Bible cause. He chose J. H. Mayne, W. J. Pruner, and W. C. Niswonger, for the committee.

Letters of greeting were read from Bishop G. M. Mathews and Dr. J. P. Landis, who were engaged in other work.

The report on Publishing Interests was read by E. S. Weimer.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON PUBLISHING INTERESTS.

Ours is a gigantic country, with magnificent prospects. She has always taken great pride in her free institutions and religious tolerance. But to keep these from the violent hand of corruption, and to stimulate them to still greater efficiency, is a charge that God has intrusted to the churches of America. There are many things of evil design that constantly threaten the purity and efficiency of their present work and prospects for still greater achievements.

Nothing can perpetuate Godliness in society and assist in promulgating much-needed civic reforms, save people with Godly characters and ambitions, schooled in the best Christian principles of the day.

Our Church has never been slack in its support of high moral issues and spiritual endeavor. This is due, in a large measure, to the reading matter our Publishing House has furnished its patrons. Indeed, there are few agencies that contribute more to the shaping of thought and the molding of character than the newspapers, magazines, and books that find their way into the home. The character of these periodicals and books depends upon their editors and contributors. The high order of these that is being maintained in our Church, and the neat, tasty manner in which our Publishing House prepares them for our people, are to be most highly commended and indorsed.

Then, we must not forget that to be a factor felt in the world's evangelization and betterment, denominational distinctiveness is not a menace, but rather a mark that distinguishes the coöperative bodies in action. Therefore, for United Brethren, no literature is so well suited to our needs as that which our House puts out; for one of the things essential to a strong denomination is denominational pride and loyalty, and a church's own literature may be termed the fountainhead of the deeds that characterize her people, and of what they are led to think of her, and how they are led to support her interests. Therefore, wherever it is possible, and it seems to me that it ought to be possible everywhere, let us strive to stimulate our people to read our papers and books, to take our Sunday-school literature, and seek to supply our churches, Young People's societies, and Sunday schools with song-books from our own composers.

We believe our Publishing House is second to none in the country in the quality of its work and the high standard of its productions—facts in themselves that call forth our praise and demand our support. A noticeable feature from the editorial departments of our publishing interests is the ever-restless spirit of the editors. They seem never to be satisfied with present conditions. They feel, as we all should feel, that there is a higher goal that should be reached, and to reach it, pastors, people, editors, and publisher must coöperate.

We commend the aspirations of the Religious Telescope staff in seeking to reach a circulation for that paper, which is the greatest church organ of our denomination, where it may become an illustrated paper, which doubtless will add to its efficiency and attractiveness and secure for it many new friends and patrons.

The Watchword is still deservedly growing in popularity and has become an indispensable help in our Young People's work.

Our Sunday-school literature was never so good and helpful as now, and is deserving of the patronage of every United Brethren Sunday school in the world.

The Missionary Advance and the Woman's Evangel are doing much to stimulate interest in missions, and these most excellent periodicals should receive our special attention, so that they may become more widely circulated, and our people more intelligently informed of the needs, possibilities, and successes of missionary endeavor.

The United Brethren Review is an excellent production, and deserves a wider circulation.

We sometimes hear slight murmurs that our Publishing House is a little high in prices for its work, but if people will stop to compare its products with other houses of our country, they will find that the cheaper ones are very much inferior to ours in their workmanship; and when they realize that our Publishing House has yet its first shoddy production of any kind to put on the market, the cause for this is at once apparent and such objection vanishes.

We, as ministers and laymen of Miami Conference, ought to deem it a great privilege to uphold our publishing interests, for our interests are mutual. They must have our hearty support in order to thrive, and we must have their products in order to live. A church without good denominational literature in this day and generation is next to impossible. Thus the imperative need of hearty coöperation is easily seen. Therefore, let us covenant together to loyally support our publishing interests, and thereby show our appreciation of the efficient manner in which our House is managed and the high order maintained in the editorial sanctums of our many literary productions.

Respectfully,

E. S. Weimer.

The report was discussed by W. R. Funk, D.D., the Publishing Agent, and Dr. H. A. Thompson.

G. P. Macklin, D.D., presiding elder of the Southern District, read his report.

REPORT OF THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT.

"And Jehovah said, . . . Lift up now thine eyes, and look from the place where thou art, northward and southward and eastward and westward, for all the land which thou seest, to thee will I give it, and to thy seed forever" (Gen. 13:14, 15).

For the third time in the providence of God and by your selection, I bring my report to the Miami Annual Conference. The year now closing has been fraught with care and responsibility, with blessing and success.

With a profound sense of my responsibility to God and the Master, I began my work on the evening of September 1, 1905, at Beavertown, Ohio. During the year I have held 111 quarterly conferences in person.

I have been accorded the best of treatment by pastors and people, and the year has been one of great blessing to me. For the three years past I have gone up and down the Southern District, and its pastors and people have become very dear to me, and I wish to take this occasion to thank them from the bottom of my heart for the many favors done me in the years agone.

The last twelve months have brought to the Master a rich harvest in souls. There have been 547 conversions. In the same time there have been 687 accessions to the Church. These figures show that my pastors have been careful to garner their sheaves.

Three new church organizations have been effected, one at Norwood, Ohio, a suburb of Cincinnati, with a population of 16,000. The present membership is 23. We also organized a new church in Hamilton, Ohio, with 23 as a present membership. We also organized a class at North Bend, Ohio, with a membership of 36. We have successful Sunday schools at each of these places.

We began this year's work in Hamilton with but a Sunday school in a borrowed church. Early in September I purchased the lot previously selected by the Conference Board of Church Extension, for $1,500. In November, we had erected on this lot, under the supervision of Rev. E. E. Saul, the pastor, a tabernacle 28 feet wide and 42 feet long, at a cost of about $450. In this tabernacle, with pleasure and profit, we have been holding our services since November 19, 1905. It has been comfortable in winter, pleasant in spring, and endurable in summer.

The work at Clifton has steadily grown in importance and achievement. Rev. Calvin McNelly and his family have worked with untiring effort to make this mission succeed, and, what is best of all, they are doing it. The walls for a parsonage and Sunday-school room are completed at this time. Brother McNelly has secured during the year between $2,000 and $3,000 for this enterprise, and he has secured most of it in Cincinnati. A loan sufficient to finish the Sunday-school room and make the whole secure has been effected. Good, strong, and experienced men of that community have come to the pastor's assistance, and by this time next year we shall have a fine property in Clifton, filled with a Sunday school of from 200 to 300 scholars and a church with a substantial and worthy membership.

Since the purchase of these lots in Clifton, in May, 1904, they have grown very much in value and strategic importance. Within the past few months the city of Cincinnati has decided to build its great Central High School just across the street from our property. This will put us in the educational, as well as the geographical center of that great city.

Rev. F. H. Bohn has been untiring in his efforts at Norwood, and he has had great success, when everything is taken into consideration. This property is constantly growing in value. The church is rapidly becoming the center of a great population, and it is only a question of time, patience, and sanctified common sense when we shall have a substantial membership in this thriving suburb of Cincinnati.

Rev. George T. Powell, pastor of Harrison Circuit, opened a new work at North Bend, Ohio, and organized a class of 36 members. A board of trustees has been appointed and incorporated. They have secured the money, purchased and paid for a lot 100 feet front and 300 feet deep, at a cost of $225. They have in cash and good subscriptions between $200 and $300 toward building a new church. There is no Protestant church in the town, and if proper adjustments can be made for the serving of this new point, it will, in the near future, grow into a self-supporting church.

Our people on Cherry Grove Circuit, under Rev. M. I. Comfort, their pastor and leader, have covered themselves with glory this year. Their church-house at Cherry Grove that was wrecked by a tornado on May 11, 1905, they have remodeled, enlarged, and very greatly improved, at a cost of $3,500, and it is all paid for.

The congregation at Liberty, on Liberty Circuit, is now in the midst of church building, under the leadership of Rev. G. A. Wahl. When the church is completed it will be worth fully $8,000, and will be an ornament to the town and the circuit. Johnsville, on the same charge, is making preparation to build in the near future.

Colerain Circuit, under Rev. E. J. Arthur, has made substantial progress during the year. Two rooms have been added to the parsonage, at a cost of $225. The indebtedness on the parsonage has also been provided for. The Bevis church-house has been very greatly improved and beautified, at a cost of $375. The unity of the charge has been very much developed during the year.

Our people at Newport, Kentucky, have paid the last dollar of their obligation to the Church Erection Society within this year and $100 on their indebtedness to this Conference, and within the coming year they will pay the remaining $150, and then they will be free from debt, with property worth more than $12,000.

Willey Memorial Church, in Cincinnati, has made considerable improvements in parsonage and church, and have paid $215 on their church debt, and in the last quarterly conference they took action to pay out next year. They have set their faces that way, and I think they will succeed.

Hartford Street Church, of Dayton, Ohio, has paid $1,450 on its debt this year, and they will push the battle vigorously until the last penny is paid.

Here at Brookville, improvements have been made in the basement to the extent of $250 in cost. They have bargained for the parsonage at the church side, but the transfer has not yet been made, but will be in the near future.

Beavertown has been busy improving church and parsonage. The church has been recarpeted and repapered at a cost of $358.41; repairs on furnace, etc., $45; repairs on parsonage, $20, aggregating in all, $423.41.

The church at Eaton has pressed forward in her work, and during the year has paid $422—the balance on church improvements. They have paid $130 on the parsonage debt and have put a furnace under the parsonage at a cost of $70, fully paid. They have paid for the above purposes $622 within this year.

The West Manchester church, on Eldorado Circiut, has been frescoed and very much improved at a cost of $310. All indebtedness at all the three appointments has been paid, and the churches have money in their treasuries.

West Elkton Circuit has provided for and paid within a few dollars all the indebtedness standing against their parsonage, $500.

Home Avenue Church has been very much improved recently. They have painted the church and papered it anew and installed the altar from the old First Church and made other internal improvements to the cost of $500. They have also paid $170 on parsonage debt.

Plucky Mt. Healthy has been giving a good account of herself this year by making substantial improvements to the extent of $291.10.

The improvements at Union Chapel, on Union Circuit, have been completed and paid for at a cost of $1,500. In the past three years this circuit has made great improvements in many ways.

Miamisburg has paid $250 on repairs made last year, and $105 on improvements made this year. They have paid out on parsonage.

Middletown is moving forward toward a substantial parsonage. We hope to have this desire materialized in the near future. The year has been a good one, as the report will show.

During the year I have made the following appointments: Rev. R. G. Hammond resigned the Newport charge within ten days after Conference without going to the place at all. I appointed the Rev. Myron F. Hawley to the charge, and he will report for that church to this Conference.

Kingsville was left unsupplied at our last session, and Rev. Wm. McKee was appointed to that charge, and will make his report to this body.

Springboro Circuit was left to be supplied. After a few weeks, I succeeded in making the following arrangement for the charge: Rev. J. Ernest Paddock, a senior in Union Biblical Seminary, was appointed to Springboro church, which he served with the greatest acceptability to the people until May 1, when he resigned to go to the Pacific Coast to do evangelistic work.

Rev. G. L. Stine, a first-year student in Union Biblical Seminary, took charge of Utica and Oregonia churches, with the best results. He rallied the scattered forces and made improvements aggregating $157. Upon the resignation of Rev. J. Ernest Paddock, Brother Stine took charge of the whole circuit, with Rev. Osa D. Wellbaum as his assistant. He will report the charge to this Conference.

The promotion of Rev. C. J. Burkert to his eternal rest on the morning of November 12, caused a vacancy in the presiding eldership of the Northern District. Rev. J. L. Swain was appointed to fill this vacancy. This left Union Circuit without a pastor, and to supply the place Rev. E. E. Saul resigned Hamilton Mission and was appointed pastor of Union Circuit.

To Hamilton Mission, I appointed Rev. Charles A. Gummere as pastor. He has been in charge ever since and will report to this body.

During the year five young men have been granted quarterly conference license to preach the gospel, four of them in the month of March and three of them from this church in which we meet to-day.

The following brethren on my district come to this Conference with their transfers and credentials: Rev. M. I. Comfort, from the Ontario Conference; Rev. J. N. Beckett, from the Southeast Ohio Conference, and Rev. Myron F. Hawley, from the Miami Christian Conference.

The following-named persons have been recommended by their quarterly conferences for membership in this body: Alden E. Landis and Osa D. Wellbaum, from Brookville Circuit, and Arthur Bittner and A. C. Barnhardt, from Home Avenue Mission.

Open doors of opportunity are constantly presenting themselves to us in Cincinnati, and we should take steps to enlarge our work in that city, where we are much needed. Brother W. S. Norris has his eye on a good location in Westwood, of that city, and I think the project is worthy of investigation.

Brother Eugene Schaeffer, secretary of the late General Conference and superintendent of the Sunday school of our First German Church in Cincinnati, has suggested the advisability of our entering Evanston, a most prosperous suburb of the city, where there is a real need of us as a church. I think both of these places should be examined and studied by the Conference Board of Church Extension.

This ninety-seventh session of the Miami Annual Conference suggests that our one hundredth anniversary is not far away, and it seems to me that a committee on centennial should be appointed to make proper arrangements for a fitting recognition of our growth in this our first one hundred years. I am persuaded that the Conference will see the fitness of such arrangements.

As I have faced and studied the problems of finance in our Conference enterprises for the past year, I have reached the conclusion that we need some organized method to strengthen our credit in the financial world. It seems to me that a Miami Conference Church Building and Loan Association might be devised that would be a source of strength to us in our efforts at church building, especially in growing centers of population. I think a committee should be appointed at this session to take this matter under consideration, and report at our meeting one year hence.

"Behold, Jehovah thy God hath set the land before thee: go up, take possession, . . . fear not, neither be dismayed" (Deut. 1: 21).

G. P. Macklin.

The report was adopted.

The report of Rev. J. L. Swain, presiding elder of the Northern District, was read.

REPORT OF NORTHERN DISTRICT.

To the Bishop and Members of Miami Conference, Greeting.

I took charge of the district December 16, 1905, and served it to the best of my ability to the close of the year. The district contains 28 charges, composed of 57 churches. I found Salem and Waterhouse circuits without pastors. Rev. D. R. Wilson was appointed to Salem, and Rev. B. P. S. Busey to Waterhouse.

The aggregate salary of the pastors is $16,645 paid by the charges, and $1,350 paid from the mission funds of the Conference, making a total of $17,995.

There are 17 parsonages on the district; 15 are occupied by the pastors. The rent of 13 will be added to the pastors' salaries as reported to the Conference chart. For the other two, rent is paid by the pastors. Two of these parsonages are new, one built by Dayton First Church in connection with their new church at a cost of $9,000, the other on the New Madison charge, bought during the year at a cost of $1,450.

Two new churches have been completed during the year, one, Dayton First Church, at a cost of $110,000, the other Olivet

Church, at a cost of $5,000. Four others are in process of building at the following places: Belmont, Arlington, West Baltimore, and Union City. The High Street Church has purchased a lot at a cost of $4,800, on the corner of High and Richard streets, on which to erect a new church, and have $4,000 on subscription toward a building fund, and expect to build the coming Conference year. Pipe-organs have been placed in the Oak Street and Riverdale churches. That at Oak Street is a gift from Brother G. W. Hartzell, and that at Riverdale is a gift from Andrew Carnegie, the Ladies' Aid Society, and Wilson Beard.

The remaining debt on the Arcanum church was paid and electric lights placed in the building. Improvements of various kinds have been made on a number of other churches on the district.

A good revival interest prevailed over the district, resulting in the conversion of hundreds of souls and in 851 accessions to the Church.

There are 662 Telescopes taken on the district, an increase of 133 over last year. There are 57 Sunday schools, 28 Young People's societies, 18 Junior societies, 35 Ladies' Aid societies, 23 Woman's Missionary societies on the district.

The following persons were recommended to this Conference for license to preach: C. A. Gummere and G. W. Kitzmiller, by the quarterly conference of Dayton First Church; G. W. Self, by the Oak Street quarterly conference; O. F. Bilger, by the Olivet and Belmont quarterly conference, and G. W. Duckwall, by the New Madison quarterly conference.

Yours in Christ,
J. L. Swain.

The report was adopted.

Pastors' reports were examined.

The report on Home Missions was read by W. T. Frank.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON HOME MISSIONS.

We, as a Conference, being conscious of the needs of the mission fields; of the command of the Christ to go and carry the message of salvation to the lost; of our duty to support financially and aid by prayer and earnest effort, pledge the Master of the vineyard our best effort in order that the human element in the mission work may be as near as possible the ideal which Christ has set for each of his followers.

We, as a Conference, approve the ruling of the General Conference, and the requests of the respective boards and their secretaries, and will earnestly endeavor to bring the funds as near as possible up to the needs of the fields.

We recognize the need of more thoroughly informing our people upon missionary lines, and therefore will try to increase the circulation of our missionary publications, also the Evangel of our sisters' organization. Also, will seek to organize mission-study classes wherever practicable. W. T. FRANK.

C. Whitney, D.D., Home Missionary Secretary; Dr. H. H. Fout, Dr. W. J. Shuey, and Dr. J. P. Miller spoke on the subject.

After announcements were made, the Conference adjourned on motion.

Dr. G. P. Macklin had the direction of the evening service. The sermon was delivered by Rev. J. S. Kendall, followed by the holy communion in charge of W. J. Shuey, D.D., Wm. McKee, D.D., D. K. Flickinger, D.D., and J. D. Holtzinger, D.D., the four oldest members of the Conference. A large congregation was present, and the service was very impressive.

SECOND DAY—MORNING SESSION.

The session opened with song No. 226. Prayer by Dr. H. Garst. Hymn No. 62 was sung. Bishop Mills continued his Bible study on the fifth chapter of Matthew, from verse 17 to the close of the chapter, on "Fundamental Principles of the Kingdom of God."

The roll was called and corrected.

The minutes of the previous day were read, corrected, and approved.

Thursday, 2:00 P.M., was made a definite time to discuss Foreign Missions and Educational reports.

Dr. Bookwalter, president of Otterbein University, and Dr. J. M. Phillippi, associate editor of the Religious Telescope, were invited to advisory seats.

The reports of pastors were examined and passed upon.

The roll of local, supernumerary, and superannuated ministers was read and corrected.

E. P. Huddle, H. H. Yohe, and Calvin McNelly were admitted to the itineracy.

E. J. Blackburn and F. G. Grigsby were granted a supernumerary relation at their own request.

On request, William A. Shuey, on account of long and apparently permanent disability for ministerial labor, was released from further membership in this Conference.

After announcements, Conference adjourned on motion. Benediction by Dr. Wm. McKee.

SECOND DAY—AFTERNOON SESSION.

After singing "He is so precious to me," Rev. E. S. Weimer led in prayer. The Conference Quartet then sang "Come, Spirit, come." Rev. J. S. Kendall spoke from the sixth chapter of Isaiah, 1-6, his subject being "A Vision of God."

Dr. S. S. Hough, Dr. A. W. Drury, Dr. W. O. Fries, and Rev. M. Hobson, of White River Conference, were granted the courtesies of the Conference.

The balance of the pastors' reports were all passed upon except one, which had not yet come to the Statistical Secretary.

The report on Foreign Missions was read by Rev. G. Mahlon Miller.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON FOREIGN MISSIONS.

The parish of each church is of a threefold aspect: (1) the local work, or its parish at home; (2) the national work, or its parish at large; (3) the world work, or its parish abroad.

The pastors, while in a sense representing the entire parish, will report concerning the local work.

The several Conference treasurers will report concerning the national work—the Conference assessments, or Home Missions. For is it not true that of the ten interests for which we, as a Conference, are assessed, all are in fact home missions in one form or another? Whether the money goes for church erection or Conference church extension, to establish Sunday schools or to educate a future ministry, is it not practically home missionary money?

Your committee, appointed at the annual session one year ago, to act in conjunction with the denominational Foreign Missionary Society, submits herewith a brief report of what has been accomplished in the world work:

I. Finances. The Conference Foreign Missionary Treasurer will report definitely as to the financial support rendered by each church. A few have probably reached the "heroic" standard of one dollar per member, a number have measured up to the "good" standard of fifty cents per member, while many have passed the minimum of twenty-five cents per member. There are two facts especially that should be emphasized at this point:

1. The churches which, in proportion to membership, have contributed the largest amounts for foreign missions are, without a single exception, those which, at the beginning of the Conference year, adopted some systematic plan of missionary giving; and, furthermore, not only has more money been thus raised with less effort, but the spirituality of the members has deepened in the process.

2. These same churches have proven true the oft-repeated but frequently disbelieved statement that a liberal support of the world work increases rather than decreases the support of the local work.

II. Sunday Schools. The last General Conference separated foreign missions from every other department of the church and made the Sunday school auxiliary. During the year a good plan has been brought about for the enlisting of our Sunday schools in the world work of the parish, namely, the building of a suitable church in Juana Diaz, Porto Rico. Every school in the Conference ought to be enlisted in this enterprise, and at least once a month render a brief missionary exercise and take an offering for the cause. The Missionary Advance contains each month a suggestive program.

III. Mission Study. In proportion to membership, the United Brethren denomination stands second in relation to mission-study work among all the Protestant denominations of America. Her ratio is 1.155, in comparison with the Methodist Episcopal ratio of 1.148. In our denomination, Miami Conference has led this past year, and we hope will continue to do so the coming year. The foreign study text-book for the coming year is "The Conquest of India," by Bishop J. M. Thoburn. In this connection,—educational missions,—we would heartily commend the Missionary Advance and urge our pastors to labor for an increased circulation.

IV. Young People's Societies. The missionary activities of the Branch Young People's Union will be further touched upon during the Conference session. Suffice it to state, therefore, that our young people are attempting large things for God and his kingdom.

Let us, as pastors, keep in our hearts and upon the hearts of our people the great, grand, and heroic enterprise of the conquest of the world for Christ. In proportion to our obedience to his last command; in proportion to our love for sinful, suffering humanity will our activity be. "Hereby know we love, because he laid down his life for us; and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren. But whoso hath the world's goods, and beholdeth his brother in need, and shutteth up his compassion from him, how doth the love of God abide in him?"

J. G. Huber, Chairman,
W. L. Bunger,
G. Mahlon Miller, Secretary.

S. S. Hough, D.D., Foreign Missionary Secretary, spoke of the growth of the work of the society, the pressure of present demands, and the piteous cry of the regions beyond into which the gospel has not yet gone.

Dr. J. G. Huber spoke of the practical plans adopted by his church and the largely increased contributions resulting therefrom.

Rev. G. Mahlon Miller also added his testimony as to the value of systematic, monthly contributions for missions.

Rev. G. A. Wahl inquired how the masses may be reached and awakened.

The congregation joined in singing "Face to face," after which Rev. J. L. Swain read a paper on the life of Rev. C. J. Burkert, for thirty-eight years the efficient secretary of this Conference, who was promoted to the realms of glory Sunday, November 12, 1905.

Rev. Cyrus J. Burkert was born at Rebersburg, Pennsylvania, July 7, 1842, and died in Dayton, Ohio, November 12, 1905. His educational advantages consisted of attendance at the public school of his native village, supplemented by a course in a select school and a short course in a Lutheran theological seminary. He removed to East Germantown, Indiana, in 1862. He enlisted in the 54th Indiana Regiment of Infantry, and was mustered into service at Indianapolis, Indiana, in 1862. His regiment was sent to Kentucky in August of the same year, where, through exposure while on picket duty, he became sick and was sent to the hospital at Louisville, where he remained for several weeks. He was mustered out and honorably discharged at Indianapolis, September 25, 1862. At the time of his death he was a member of Old Guard Post, G. A. R., of Dayton. He was previously a member of Carrolton Bear Post, of Germantown. After his discharge from the service he engaged in teaching school for a time.

He became a member of White River Conference at its session of 1865, and received a transfer from it at the same session to Miami Conference, and was received into this Conference on his transfer at its session at West Sonora, September 7, 1865. He was chosen as one of the secretaries of the Conference at its session in Pyrmont, August 20, 1868, and served as its Secretary continuously until his death, a period of thirty-seven years. As a secretary he had no superiors and few equals in the Church. His records of the daily proceedings very rarely needed correcting. He was ordained to the office of an elder by Bishop Edwards at the session of this Conference at Pyrmont on Sabbath, August 24, 1868. He served the following charges in the order named: Liberty, Mt. Pleasant, Cincinnati, Germantown, New Haven, Beavertown, Lewisburg, Springfield, Vandalia, and Summit Street. At the time of his death he was serving his fourteenth year as presiding elder.

Brother Burkert received 839 members into the Church on the charges he served. He was a man of polished manners, polite and pleasing in his associations with all. His winning ways made friends of all classes. As a preacher he was clear and pleasing in his pulpit efforts. His delivery was excellent and his style attractive. He made thorough and careful preparation for his pulpit, and thereby maintained a high and uniform standard of pulpit work. As a pastor he was a success. His visits to the homes of the people were greatly appreciated by all, and by his agreeable and kindly manner won the affections of old and young alike. His services were much sought for on funeral occasions because of his aptness in ministering to the sorrowing. As a writer of obituaries he had few equals. He was a man of one work, giving himself unreservedly to the work of the ministry. He could say, "This one thing I do." He died in the harness. His sickness that terminated in his death was of short duration. He held his last quarterly meeting on the Rosewood charge on October 29, preaching twice on Sunday, and in two weeks from that day, Sunday morning, November 12, he entered into rest. "There remaineth therefore a rest for the people of God."

In the death of Rev. C. J. Burkert this Conference has lost one of its most useful and valued members, his wife a devoted husband, and his sons a faithful father. In his wife, Brother Burkert had a helpmeet indeed. He manifested his confidence in her ability as a financier by intrusting the financial management of the home largely to her, and in his will by committing the management of his estate entirely to her. We assure Sister Burkert and her sons of our sympathy and prayers in this great sorrow that has come to them. May He who is a husband to the widow and a father to the fatherless put round about them the arms of his sympathy and love.

"Oh, how sweet it will be in that beautiful land,
So free from all sorrow and pain,
With songs on our lips and with harps in our hands,
To meet one another again."

J. L. SWAIN.

Wm. McKee followed with a paper on the general characteristics of the life and ministry of Brother Burkert.

CHARACTER AND WORK OF REV. C. J. BURKERT.

Rev. C. J. Burkert was a man whose biography would very largely recite the history of Miami Conference for the third of a century. His life and labors were so interwoven with the benevolent, educational, and missionary enterprises of the Conference that you cannot select a chapter, or a page, or a year in the history of its efforts without encountering the advice, coöperation, and labor of this faithful man of God. For this reason it seems meet that a description of the man slightly more definite than was fitting at his funeral should be given.

Dress.—In his dress Mr. Burkert was always neat, plain, and clean. It could never be said that he was loud, or vain, or extravagant, or foppish on the one hand, or that he was neglectful, or slovenly, or even odd, on the other. He was always the same well-dressed gentleman, but modest and welcome in any company of respectable people. He followed Washington's rule, "In your dress be modest always, consulting your circumstances."

Manners.—I doubt if he ever read Chesterfield, or any similar publication, but he was himself a whole volume on good manners. He made one of a company, never disturbing others, never trying to assume the rôle of a leader or controller and never shrinking from any part that might be expected of him. Not pompous or manifesting superior dignity, either of word or manner, nor descending into unseemly hilarity or undue familiarity with any one or any company, he yet was a favorite of all who enjoyed his acquaintance. In his home, in the social gathering, in a business meeting, in the Annual and General conferences, he was the same affable, courteous, and approachable brother. We traveled and wrought together for forty years, and if, in all that time, he ever uttered a foul word or breathed a lewd fling, or repeated a vulgar story, I fail to remember it. He was the embodiment of a noble Christian gentleman.

Musical.—In his work as a minister, he made himself doubly useful by the gift of song. This was specially noticeable in the earlier years of his ministry, when the preacher was expected every year to hold five or six protracted meetings covering a period of two to four weeks each. The singing made up a large part of every service. And this, let the reader remember, was before the organ found its way into our churches. Only a few congregations, while he was serving circuits, had, or would tolerate the organ. Now and then he would find a leader on whom he could depend, but often he was obliged to lead the singing from first to last. And this he did, not grudgingly, but freely, gladly, so that his people were always sure of good music when Brother Burkert was their pastor; and many a soul was literally sung into the kingdom by the melody of his songs. This gift of song is a rare talent in any minister of the gospel; to Mr. Burkert it was one of unsurpassed usefulness.

An Economist.—Mr. Burkert lived within his means. The reader need not be told that economy is a necessity with the United Brethren preacher. He husbanded his resources. He rarely made debts. If he did, he paid them—paid them on time. If payment was delayed, he explained and made everything satisfactory to his creditor. And so he always had credit; with or without money he got what he needed. Nobody suspected he would make an improper use of money, or doubted that he would return a credit in due time. And so, on a small salary and repeated removals, he maintained his family with credit and left his widow a competence when he was called away.

Executive Ability.—Mr. Burkert was an executive of no mean ability. In a conversation concerning the way he managed the affairs of the Church as intrusted to his care, a brother once remarked, "He would make a good governor of the State." And so he would if he had turned his attention to political affairs. He was continually elected as Secretary of the Conference because he took care of everything. Three-fourths of the motions and resolutions of Conference were made verbally, the mover not thinking or caring at the time how it would afterward appear. The Secretary was always on the alert, and rarely failed to "catch the motion" and put it in shape so it would properly express the thought of the mover and the purpose of the Conference. Very few knew or cared what constant vigilance this required. On reading the minutes over for approval, it was a rare thing if anything had been omitted or needed correction. On final adjournment, he was intrusted with the arrangement and publication of the Minutes without question, every one believing that the work would be satisfactorily done. And so it was. It is questionable whether another conference in the Church has so complete and accurate a history of its transactions as the Miami Conference.

Mr. Burkert was one of the chief counselors in the organization and maintenance of the Mutual Beneficial Society, whose helpfulness at a time when families most need help is of incalculable value. By the payment of a very small annual fee, each member is entitled to $150 at the time of his decease. Ministers and their wives are both entitled to membership. But for Mr. Burkert's influence and managing quality it is doubtful if any such beneficent provision would have been called into operation to this day.

Again, he also took the lead in the organization of the Conference Church Extension Society as a means of more effectually carrying forward mission work within the territorial limits of the Conference. This organization is already bearing fruit in Cincinnati, Dayton, Hamilton, and elsewhere, and is destined to quicken the zeal and double the work of church building and the gathering of congregations within the Conference limits in the near future. It will thus be seen that he was always thinking and planning how to improve and strengthen the Conference, to the end that the kingdom of God should be enlarged. His reports to Conference show that no item on the chart was forgotten. He made his collections, moreover, so smoothly and seemingly so easily, that nobody was troubled about it—nobody complained. If, however, any one could have read his thinking as well as they heard his words and saw his actions, it would probably not have seemed such an easy task.

Consecrated to His Work.—All his gifts, acquirements, time, and energies were laid on the altar. He kept nothing back. He had no side issues. He was single-minded. He knew nothing but Christ crucified, the Savior of sinners. He had neither time nor inclination to go prowling about for some new notion, or criticism of this or that book of the Bible, or even a chapter. He accepted it as God's book and spent his time trying to learn and teach the people what God had revealed. In his inmost soul he believed that God had called him to preach the gospel, and, like Paul, from the first he "conferred not with flesh and blood," but set himself to perform the work God had given him. And herein is the source of his success. Everybody wanted him. Not a charge in the Conference but would have rejoiced to hear his name announced as its pastor. They knew he had no other work, or task, or purpose to divide his mind. He would be a preacher only, their preacher. He would not be endeavoring to conduct a store, operate a manufactory, or manage a farm, while he gave them the fag end of his strength and thought. And they were not disappointed. Whether he ministered at the bedside of some sufferer, or conducted the funeral rites of some departed saint, or preached a sermon to his people on the Sabbath day, he was always the man of God ministering in holy things to the comfort and edification of the flock of God.

A Good Sermonizer.—Mr. Burkert was a prince among preachers. In the first five minutes of any of his sermons he showed that he had carefully laid out his work; that he had a thought which he intended to argue, illustrate, and fasten on the minds and hearts of his hearers. While he was not so argumentative as Edwards or so rhetorical as Beecher, he was very attractive, persuasive, convincing. While not entirely original, (very few are,) he was fresh, clear, spiritual, and his hearers often said, "That was a good sermon; he fed our souls." And this was the highest compliment that could be paid him. He preached not first or chiefly to please or entertain the people, but to arrest their attention, show them their sins, and point them to the great Physician, who alone can heal the malady of their souls. He did not think that a doctor's medicines are rendered any more effective by being more nauseous than needful, and so he did not think a preacher gained anything by calling the people liars, thieves, drunkards, murderers, or in any way abusing them from the pulpit, any more than he believed that to act the clown or continually jest and tell foolish and trifling stories for their amusement would be at all beneficial. He was a serious man engaged in a serious business, and he plainly set forth the way of salvation. This he did in a plain, persuasive, scriptural manner, always showing, without telling it over and over, that he had a deep yearning for the welfare of the people to whom he ministered. He showed, as he believed, that while a preacher may do much good by visiting the members of his flock, especially the afflicted, singing, and attending to the business affairs of the church, he must first and most of all be a preacher of the Word. He must "preach the word," "divide the word," "make the message plain," showing emphatically that it is God's word, and not man's, that he proclaims. All the helps to his ministry will not avail unless he is an earnest preacher. A dinner of salt and pepper and other spices will make a poor meal. It must have meat. Those are helpful; this is essential. So Mr. Burkert believed and practiced. His sermon was the meat of his daily fare. It cost him the dearest time and thought of his life. His sermons, many of them written out at full length, show with what constant, painstaking effort they were prepared.

All in all, he was an ideal minister. Not perfect, not the greatest or best that ever lived, yet he followed Christ with an earnest desire to fulfill his mission, and we would do well to imitate him in so far as he followed the Master.

Wm. McKee.

Rev. J. D. Holtzinger spoke of his tenderness as a pastor, his strength as a preacher.

The Conference Quartet tenderly sang, "I have heard of a far-away land."

Dr. H. H. Fout spoke of his helpfulness as a personal friend and brother.

Dr. H. A. Thompson spoke of his resourcefulness as a pastor and his tactfulness in dealing with men.

The last pastor's report was examined and approved.

The report on candidates for admission to the Conference was read.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON CANDIDATES FOR THE MINISTRY.

1. We recommend the reception of the following brethren on their transfers: A. Kissel, B. P. S. Busey, M. I. Comfort, D. R. Wilson (subject to transfer), D. K. Flickinger, M. F. Hawley, J. N. Beckett.

2. The following brethren appeared before us for license from this Conference. All of these brethren we found sound in doctrine and clear in their convictions of duty to preach the gospel. As to literary qualifications, as required by Discipline, we find as follows:

Osa D. Wellbaum has completed a high school course and has had one year in the Union Biblical Seminary.

Alden E. Landis has completed the A.B. course in Otterbein University.

G. W. Self has gone through the grades of the public school and has had one year in the Seminary, and is intending to be in the Seminary the coming year.

C. A. Gummere has had three years in Otterbein University.

O. F. Bilger has gone through the common schools, has prepared and taught music for several years in the public schools, and has done some general reading in the Baptist course of reading for ministers in the Baptist Church. The committee does not deem these qualifications quite equal to a high school course, but as he intends to enter the Seminary this fall to take a course there, we recommend that he be admitted.

Arthur Bittner has had two years in high school, one year in Otterbein University preparatory course, and expects to finish a course in Otterbein University.

Adolph C. Barnhardt has passed through the grades of the public schools, three years in a technical correspondence school, one year in the Seminary, and one year in the English course in the Y. M. C. A.

G. W. Kitzmiller has taken a high school course, one year in the Seminary, and expects to complete the course there.

G. W. Duckwall has had three years in high school and one year in Otterbein University.

We recommend the admission of all these brethren.

W. H. KLINEFELTER,
H. H. FOUT,
J. G. HUBER,

Rev. A. F. Davis was dismissed from the Conference and Church and recommended to the Presbyterian Church.

Rev. A. W. Denlinger was transferred to the Sandusky Conference of the United Brethren Church.

Charles F. Meyer was recommended to the Committee on Elders' Orders.

Wm. McKee and D. E. Myers were granted leave of absence at their request.

The Boundary and Finance Committee made a partial report, which was referred back to the committee for further consideration.

Adjourned on motion, with benediction by Rev. P. M. Camp.

SECOND DAY—EVENING SESSION.

The evening service was in charge of Rev. J. S. Kendall. His theme was "The Winning Church." Acts 2:47 was taken as his text. The church that wins must have the respect of the community; it must be officered by clean men who have the interests of God's kingdom at heart; it must be liberal, having the pocketbooks consecrated to God's cause.

THIRD DAY—MORNING SESSION.

Bishop Mills called the Conference to order promptly at 8:30 A.M. Brother Andreas led in singing No. 199. Rev. J. P. Stewart, of Sulphur Grove, led in prayer. After singing No. 175, the Bishop conducted the Bible study. Matthew, chapter six, was taken. "Righteousness as Piety" was his theme. Right motives in giving; the true spirit of prayer, that of fellowship with God; "as in heaven so on earth"; the helpfulness of fasting was spoken of, especially for preachers. Unworldliness; taking God into your life as partner is a necessity to the Christian. Piety is absolute trust in God. "Where worry begins faith ends; where faith begins worry ends" (Moehler).

The roll was called.

The minutes of the previous day were read and approved.

I. L. Kephart, D.D., editor of the Religious Telescope, and Dr. H. F. Shupe, editor of the Watchword, were introduced to the Conference, both of whom spoke briefly.

Rev. C. B. Boda brought the Quarterly Review to the attention of the Conference.

The report on Temperance was read by Rev. E. J. Arthur.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON TEMPERANCE.

The saloon, with its concomitants, is a continual and serious hinderance to the church of Jesus Christ in the saving of the masses of the unsaved and bringing them to the feet of the world's Redeemer.

It is a hinderance to good government, a menace to civil and religious liberty, and is pitted against all moral righteousness.

It is a temptation continually in the way of our young men and women, to lead them astray and into the paths of sin and debauchery. Its devotees violate the laws of God and man, and seek to fill their coffers at the expense of helpless mothers and children who daily cry for bread and clothing. The saloons fill our prisons, almshouses, and asylums.

Therefore, realizing to a degree at least the extent and effect of this gigantic evil, be it

Resolved, 1. That we, as ministers of the gospel, ambassadors of Jesus Christ, and representative laymen, do all in our power to dethrone King Alcohol and lessen this great evil in our midst.

2. That we preach at least four temperance sermons each year, thus bringing the knowledge of the evil of intemperance continually before the people.

3. That we encourage all our Sabbath-school superintendents and teachers and the press in agitating this great question.

4. That we deplore the fact that with the increase of license comes each year an increase in the amount of alcoholic drinks consumed per capita, and that we believe the only solution to this problem is the absolute prohibition of the manufacture and sale of all spiritous liquor as a beverage.

5. That this great evil is so entrenched behind the bulwarks of politics, continually throwing off its slime and filth to the pollution of the same, and that our only hope is at the ballot-box, and that we, as professed followers of our Christ, who love good government, exercise our God-given privilege and at the ballot-box vote as we pray.

6. That, as members of the Miami Conference of the United Brethren Church and as Christians, we regard it as a privilege, as well as a duty, to commend public officials who do right, as well as to oppose and condemn those who do wrong.

7. That we take pleasure in expressing our hearty thanks to the members of the present Ohio Legislature of both political parties who secured the passage of advanced temperance laws and safeguarded the Sabbath day by refusing to repeal or amend the Sunday-closing law.

8. That we heartily commend the Anti-Saloon League and all other temperance societies, for the assistance rendered in the securing of good temperance laws and the enforcement of the same.

9. That we favor a county local option law.

10. That we are glad for the presence of Mr. Eldridge, of Cincinnati, representative of the Anti-Saloon League, with us during our Conference session, and recommend that Rev. G. P. Macklin, D.D., be appointed as a trustee of the Ohio Anti-Saloon League.

E. J. Arthur, Committee.

The report, after a few verbal changes, was adopted.

Rev. C. W. Eldridge, representative of the Anti-Saloon League, spoke to the Conference. His message was a burning, helpful, stirring one that captivated the Conference.

A partial report from the Committee on Boundaries was read, amended, and adopted.

The itinerant list was corrected. E. J. Blackburn took a supernumerary relation, as did F. G. Grigsby. E. P. Huddle, H. H. Yohe, and Calvin McNelly were voted into the active itineracy.

The ballot was taken for presiding elders. No election on the first ballot.

C. W. Kurtz and J. L. Swain were elected presiding elders on the second ballot.

W. L. Bunger and J. W. Kilbourn, of the Northern District, and P. M. Camp and E. E. Saul, of the Southern District, were elected to station the presiding elders.

The Conference Treasurer, G. P. Macklin, read his report, and it was referred to the Auditing Committee.

After announcements, the Conference adjourned on motion, with the benediction by Dr. W. J. Shuey.

THIRD DAY—AFTERNOON SESSION.

Brother Andreas led in singing, "Trust and obey." Rev. G. W. Kitzmiller led in prayer. "The name of Jesus" was then sung. "Preparation for Evangelistic Work" was Brother Kendall's subject: 1. Things that hinder: (1) Character of the worker; (2) liability of selling out to the devil. 2. Aids to success: (1) Knee work—prayer; (2) the Holy Spirit must convict (James 3:16). 3. Elements of successful prayer: (1) Confess your sin to God; do not stand before mammon,—your congregation,—but before God; (2) yield your life to God; hide yourself as did Elijah, and then you can show yourself; (3) persistent prayer; (4) faith—"without faith it is impossible to please God." Prayer by Rev. J. W. Flory.

G. W. Kitzmiller, G. W. Self, Osa D. Wellbaum, and Alden E. Landis were recommended to the Board of Education for aid.

Olivet, North Dayton, Union City, and the Dayton First Church each asked for the next Annual Conference. Troy Street Church was selected as the place of holding the Conference next year.

A committee was appointed to plan for the proper observance of the one hundredth anniversary of this Conference. Dr. J. P. Miller, W. J. Shuey, D.D., and Dr. J. G. Huber were selected by the Bishop.

It was voted to coöperate as a Conference in the support of the Quincy Orphanage. Dr. G. P. Macklin was elected trustee.

The report of J. W. Flory, Treasurer of the Sunday-School General Fund, was read and referred to the Auditing Committee.

J. W. Flory, Treasurer.

All other treasurers were instructed to pass their reports to the Auditing Committee.

Mr. L. O. Miller, General Church Treasurer, was present and was extended the courtesies of the Conference. He spoke briefly.

Hymn No. 79, "Light after darkness," was sung, then the order of the day was taken up.

Rev. W. L. Bunger read a memorial paper on the life of Rev. Columbus Hall, deceased.

REV. COLUMBUS HALL.

Rev. Columbus Hall was born on a farm near Weston, Lewis County, West Virginia, of Scotch-Irish parentage. He died of cancer at the Miami Valley Hospital, Dayton, Ohio, June 27, 1906, at the age of 53 years, 4 months, and 26 days. He gave his heart to God at the age of fourteen, in a meeting at Simmons Chapel United Brethren Church, near Freemansburg.

Before the beginning of his ministerial life he taught school three years. After preaching four years he entered school, first at Fairmount Normal School, then at Otterbein University, to better fit him for his life's work. He was graduated from Otterbein University with the class of '83, and on the day of graduation, June 14, was united in marriage with his classmate, Miss Sue A. Bovey. Mrs. Hall died two years ago from the same disease—cancer—which caused the death of Brother Hall.

Immediately upon leaving Otterbein University, Brother Hall returned to West Virginia, and became the leading spirit in founding the West Virginia Normal and Classical Academy at Buckhannon, and to this work gave himself until 1890, when he came to the Seminary for one year, and in 1891 joined this Conference, taking up work on the Pleasant Hill and New Hope charge. It was here that I first met Brother Hall, when I was a teacher in the public schools on the same charge. His work being large and hard to travel, and I being a quarterly conference preacher just licensed, he made it convenient sometimes for me to give a little assistance. I first tried to preach in his church at Friendship Chapel, Darke County, Ohio.

My association with Brother Hall from that time was close and to me very helpful. He knew how to befriend and help a young man. He was a man of pure motives and clean thought and life.

A few years ago, about seven, I believe, on account of serious throat trouble, he engaged in secular business. One day, during his last illness, he showed me the condition of his tongue and throat, saying, "No one knows what suffering and annoyance this has caused me."

He was a patient sufferer, and in the most matter-of-fact way arranged all the details of his business and funeral plans. When asked by Dr. Sanders how he could be so calm, he replied, "If we believe the doctrines we preach, why should we not be calm?"

During the May meeting at Summit Street Church, he sent for me to come to his room to ask me to prepare this paper, saying, "I am going to get well if I can, but the doctors give me no grounds for hope, and I want to arrange for these last things."

A little while before his death he asked his physician, "Will I suffer more than I have suffered?" and on being told that there was nothing harder than what he had already borne, and that he was slowly dying, said, like Mr. Moody, "Is this all there is to death?"

His last message was, "Tell the people I died in the faith of the gospel I have preached."

WARREN L. BUNGER.

Dr. H. H. Fout read a paper on the life and character of Sister C. H. Snyder, deceased.

MRS. CATHARINE MC NELLY SNYDER.

Catharine McNelly was born near Brookville, Ohio, March 1, 1875, and departed this life at Lockington, Ohio, on the morning of January 10, 1906. She was reared in a beautiful Christian home, charged with the atmosphere of intense religious interest. There her life developed into beauty and maturity. At a very early age her Christian training was supplemented by the essential and divine touch of the spirit of God in regeneration, at which time she united with the church, and consecrated her young life to the service of the Lord. The fineness of her spirit, the wealth of her devotion, the Christ-likeness of her humility and self-sacrifice combined to wield a marvelous influence for good among all with whom she toiled and associated. Never do we feel so much our feeble powers of expression as when we stand before a human life which has caught and reflected the beauty of heaven and try to describe it. Beyond the beauty of any work of art is a life fashioned after the pattern of our Lord Jesus Christ.

On the second day of June, 1896, Miss McNelly was married to Rev. Clinton H. Snyder, of Trotwood, Ohio. In that humble home was wedded love of ten happy years. There purity, peace, and love reigned supreme. She of his youthful pride and choice was his supreme and constant delight; he was her tower of strength. With beautiful fidelity he tenderly followed her down into the valley, as far as mortal can go, constantly bestowing upon her the ministry of tender love and care until the farewell was spoken. Knowing at the time of marriage the life purpose of her husband she gladly entered into his work with all the ardor and enthusiasm of her life, and for a time was a student with him in Union Biblical Seminary. During the past four years of her husband's pastorate at Lockington she has been an ardent worker, and at the time of her death was superintendent of the Junior Y. P. C. U., to which she was greatly attached, and arranged that they participate in her funeral service. Truly it may be said of Sister Snyder that she was a good woman. Her life embodied the noblest elements of Christian womanhood. Her price is above rubies.

To these parents were given a little daughter. Her coming into the home opened a new avenue of heavenly sunlight, and if possible united more closely the hearts of the parents. May it please the dear Lord that the life of little Ruth may be precious in his sight, and that he may open to her a life of great beauty and usefulness in his service.

Stricken down in the prime of life, in the meridian of an honored and useful career, in the full enjoyment of all her powers, the death of this noble woman is to us one of the inscrutable mysteries of providential government, for the explanation of which we must wait the day when all mystery shall be cleared away, and we can see how love and wisdom shone in dispensations to us so dark. Our faith is never so beautiful as when it looks up through tears and says, "Father, it is right because thou hast ordered it." We must not claim the right of binding to earth the souls which have ripened so sweetly for heaven.

"At the crystal river's brink,
Some sweet day, by and by,
We shall find each broken link,
Some sweet day, by and by.
Then the star that fading here,
Left our hearts and homes so drear,
We shall see more bright and clear,
Some sweet day, by and by."

How few are the words required to set the bounds to the earth life. But events and dates cannot adequately measure a good life. There is an immortality in influence. The good thoughts, the good deeds, the good memories of those who have been the salt and light of the earth do not perish with their departure. They live on forever. Sister Snyder has left an enduring memorial in the hearts of all who have been touched by her life. The evening of her life was beautiful. The sky was cloudless in which her sun went down. In sweet submission to God's will she bade her husband, little daughter, and surrounding friends good-by, with the assurance of a meeting in heaven where the happy union would be made eternal, and where broken friendships would be resumed. The sweetness of unfailing strength, and the bloom of eternal youth now rest upon her cheek and brow. Truly her memory is blessed!

H. H. Fout.

Rev. O. F. Bilger tenderly sang, "Sometime we 'll understand."

Dr. H. Garst spoke briefly on the life of Brother Hall.

It was voted that the Secretaries receive $10 each for their services, the same to be taken from the collection taken on Sunday morning, the balance to be turned into the Conference Church Extension Society treasury.

Mrs. S. E. Hoffman, as the fraternal representative of the Woman's Missionary Association, addressed the Conference in a very instructive, helpful way. Mrs. Harry Pentz, president of the Miami Conference Branch of the Woman's Missionary Association, also spoke briefly.

The report on Education was read by Rev. C. H. Snyder.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION.

To "subdue the earth" is the task that was assigned man, made in God's image. He has never been released from this task, neither has it been shown how largely the redemption of the race is dependent upon this factor—education.

We look upon the childhood of to-day and we behold the manhood of to-morrow.

To be able to do is life's immediate goal. To be in order to be able to do is its essential.

Christianity stands for such development, and is therefore most intimately identified with education. Because of this, the church is the friend and guardian of our public schools and the immediate support and inspiration to our denominational schools.

We desire to express ourselves—

1. As friendly to all forms of education which in any way leads to a keener appreciation of mental capabilities and the development of true manhood.

2. We greatly rejoice in the unprecedented prosperity of Otterbein University in all her departments, and congratulate the faculty and trustees upon their successful management, and most heartily thank and commend the great generosity of Mrs. Sarah B. Cochran, Mr. G. A. Lambert and family, Andrew Carnegie, the Keisters, and many others for their generous gifts to this institution. We also desire to thank our genial, great-hearted, broad-minded Publishing Agent, Dr. W. R. Funk, who, amidst the many cares and responsibilities of his position, found time to do great service in solicitation of thouands of dollars for Otterbein University. May she move forward under this mighty impetus, our young people catching the enthusiasm for higher education and, flocking thither, reach the 1,000 mark and beyond.

3. As ministers and laymen, we will urge our young people to avail themselves of the opportunity of a higher education by completing a course of study in Otterbein University.

4. We take great pride in Union Biblical Seminary, the theological institution of our Church, situated in our very midst, and from which we derive so much benefit as a Conference. We heartily commend the policy of operating the Seminary without allowing another debt to accumulate for current expenses, and express our willingness to coöperate in securing a new building for administration purposes and remodeling the present building for students' rooms exclusively. We will urge our young men entering the ministry to avail themselves of the training to be had in this grand school.

5. With the increasing demand upon the Beneficiary Fund, we recognize the need of greater support to this interest, and will endeavor to collect the assessment for this and the above-named interests, and thus contribute to the extension of the Master's kingdom.

Respectfully submitted,

C. H. Snyder.

Discriminate in reference to the sacred things of the gospel of Christ. "Give not that which is holy unto the dogs." In dealing with others, be thoughtful for their good. We should use prudence and choose the right way. Use wisdom in selecting whom you will follow. Look out for religious humbugs. Be careful about your foundation principles. You are responsible for the kind of building erected.

The report on Young People's Christian Union was read by C. B. Boda.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON Y. P. C. U.

This might be called the report concerning the future Church, for it has to do with the training agency of the Church. As the Sunday school is the church's teaching department, so the Y. P. C. U. is her training department. A church without a Young People's Society has not the brightest prospects for the future. Pastors should personally interest themselves in this work, seeking to have a society in every church where it is practicable, and in every way encourage the work and wisely direct the workers. We advise the form of organization best adapted to local needs, recommending, however, the Christian Endeavor for city churches especially, where this brings the young people into connection with the Christian Endeavor unions and in touch with the larger religious life of the city.

Things to be emphasized:

1. Better committee work.
2. More personal evangelism.
3. More and better Bible study, in the society meetings and on the part of the members individually.
4. Christian stewardship and tithing.
5. The keeping of the pledge, where one exists, in spirit as well as in letter.
6. Home and foreign mission study in classes, or in society meetings. The excellent text-books and helps now provided through our mission boards for both these branches of study make the work interesting and not difficult. If no leader can be found, let the pastor be the leader. He himself will be greatly benefited thereby.
7. Mission giving to special objects by the societies through the Branch and General unions. To this end we commend our Conference Branch for its action at the last convention looking to the raising of $1,000 ($600 for Porto Rico and $400 for Conference home missions). As pastors, we will keep this aim before our societies and help all we can toward its achievement by the societies' meeting in full the apportionment placed upon them. We also take notice of the action of the last Biennial Convention, urging a general missionary offering on Young People's Day, May 1, and recommend that all societies line up in this movement that resulted this year in raising nearly $1,100 from only 300 of the 1,700 societies of the Church. In this connection, we express our appreciation of the work for our young people of the missionary superintendents of the Branch and General unions, and also that of the educational secretary of the Mission Board.
8. The payment of annual dues of $1.00 should be looked after by the pastor where it is likely to be neglected.
9. We commend the Watchword for its general features as a young people's paper, and for its helps on the Young People's prayer-meeting topics. Where this paper is not furnished by the Sunday school, a club should be organized in the society.

C. B. Boda, Committee.

The report was discussed by Dr. J. G. Huber, president of the General Union.

The report was adopted.

The report on Sunday Schools was read by J. E. Yingling.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON SABBATH SCHOOLS.

If the Sabbath school is the church studying the Scriptures; if the Sabbath school is the nursery of the church; if the Sabbath school is the greatest feeder to the church; if the Sabbath school furnishes the widest possible field for evangelistic work, then we would urge:

1. The appointment or election of officers and teachers who are positive in their religious experience, consistent in their daily living, loyal in their devotion to, and liberal in their contribution toward the support of the church, and careful in their preparation and presentation of the lesson.

2. While we would not condemn the emphasizing of the importance of the church in the Sabbath school, yet we deplore the lack of emphasis on the part of many workers to the importance of the Sabbath school in the church. Remember, the Sabbath school will never become a potent factor in the evangelism of the world, or a strong feeder to the church, unless the scholars, especially the seniors and intermediates, be urged to attend the preaching of the Word, immediately following the regular session of the school. Pastors, superintendents, and parents are therefore urged to insist upon teachers and scholars remaining for the after service. A teacher who habitually refuses to remain should be dismissed forthwith.

3. If the school of to-day is to be the church of to-morrow, then in order that we may have a wide-awake, intelligent, and consecrated church on the morrow, it is necessary that teachers make special preparation for the presentation of the lesson. I have no patience with a preacher who is a slave to a manuscript, or a teacher who is a slave to a lesson help. Use all the helps possible at home, but before your class the Bible only should be used. Again, if the church of to-morrow is to be the light of the world, or the salt of the earth, then it is absolutely essential that the scholars of to-day be taught the importance of an early acceptance of Christ Jesus as their loving Lord and blessed Savior. We believe in the possibility of children being brought to an experimental knowledge of sins pardoned, and to the conscious realization of the presence and power of the love of Christ as a constraining force in their young hearts and lives. While there are many things about Decision Day that we do most gladly commend, yet we question the advisability of having children sign cards, unless it be with the clearest possible explanation that the child is not to conclude that because he or she may have signed a card he is necessarily converted. As a cash donation is better than money secured by subscription, so religion secured by subscription is excelled by pardon realized and peace enjoyed.

Seeing, then, with the eye of faith the opportunities which are almost infinite in multitude and magnitude, of bringing the world to the foot of the Cross within the next two or three decades through the Sabbath school, therefore be it Resolved, 1. That we commend the plan of the Sunday-School Board in placing in the field Rev. J. E. Shannon, as field and missionary evangelist, and pray God that he may find an open door in the great centers of population into which he may enter, and that the greatest possible success may attend his efforts.

2. That as Miami Conference has received aid to the amount of $260 from the General Board during this Conference year, and as we paid only $347.25 on assessments last Conference year, it is only fair that we accept the full amount of $416, and pledge ourselves to secure same from our respective fields of labor.

3. That we are pleased to learn of the increase in circulation of our Bible Teacher, which we consider second to none. We would urge that each Sabbath school in the Conference purchase the Bible Teacher, with the other literature quarterly, and place a copy in the hands of each teacher.

4. Believing that our literature is as good as the best published by any denomination, we would encourage an increase in its circulation.

5. An increase in the number enrolled in the teacher-training classes of more than 700 over last year speaks in no uncertain note of the desire on the part of teachers, and demand, on the part of schools, for better equipments and a more thorough preparation on the part of teachers. We would therefore urge that wherever possible a training class be organized.

6. Believing that our editor, Dr. H. H. Fout and his associate, Dr. W. O. Fries, are painstaking, hard-working, competent, and conscientious Christian men, and that through their efforts our literature is being brought to the highest state of efficiency and instruction, we would therefore pledge to them our sincere sympathy and prayers for their future success.

Respectfully submitted,

J. E. Yingling, Committee.

Dr. H. H. Fout, editor of our Sunday-school literature, spoke on the report in a most forcible way.

Prof. M. A. Honline, Ohio State Teacher-Training Secretary, spoke on the need and result of training Sunday-school teachers. He spoke on the "Boy Problem" in an earnest, practical, helpful way.

After a spirited discussion of the paper by Bishop Mills, W. L. Bunger, Dr. W. H. Klinefelter, Dr. J. P. Miller, J. E. Yingling, and Dr. W. J. Shuey, the report was adopted.

Adjourned on motion, with benediction by Dr. W. J. Pruner.

A meeting of the alumni of Otterbein University and Union Biblical Seminary was held at 1:00 P.M. Dr. J. G. Huber, the president, called the meeting to order.

President L. Bookwalter, Dr. J. G. Huber, and others spoke briefly as to the best means of securing students and money for the University.

The election of officers resulted as follows: J. G. Huber, President; C. W. Kurtz, First Vice-President; W. L. Bunger, Second Vice-President; D. R. Wilson, Secretary; C. A. Funkhouser, Treasurer.

FOURTH DAY—AFTERNOON SESSION.

After a season of song led by Rev. O. F. Bilger, Rev. D. R. Wilson led in prayer. Rev. J. S. Kendall spoke on Matt. 9:36-38. "Compassion for Souls" was his theme. Look about you and see lost souls. "He that winneth souls is wise"—tactful. Prayer by Dr. W. J. Pruner.

The report on Church Erection was read by Rev. H. H. Yohe.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON CHURCH ERECTION.

In carrying forward the work of the Redeemer among men, preaching is an important factor, for, as Paul asks, "How shall they hear without a preacher?"

But a place of worship is as important as the preacher. As a denomination, we have placed considerable stress upon the missionary enterprise, and since we have been in the great missionary period of modern times, the tendency has been to look to foreign fields; and, in our looking outward, we have, to some extent at least, forgotten to look inward with discerning gaze upon the needs at home.

The people are moving cityward as never before, and while multitudes have been lost to our denomination in the comparatively recent past, because of not finding church homes in the cities to which they moved, still an even greater loss will occur in the future, unless preparation is made to meet the demand. The fact that more than a million foreigners landed on our shores last year, and the greater number of whom located in our cities, places upon us a new and a heavy responsibility.

Is it right that we should give so many of our members to other denominations, or allow them to backslide, when the means which we have of God in abundance would give them a home? But, more than that, by not doing our very utmost to forward the church-erection movement, many souls will not be reached that should be reached and that we alone can reach.

The amount of the Church Erection Fund at present, or, rather, the total assets, is $158,511.08. It has helped in the erection of churches in practically every State in which our Church is operating, and has added to the Church, property amounting to over $800,000, besides the multitude of souls that have been saved as a result.

Resolved, 1. That while we thank God for the degree of success attending this branch of church work, we thank him still more for the privileges open to us at the present time.

2. That we regard the Parsonage Fund as one of great importance, and recommend that every congregation contribute something, even though it may be a small amount, to this interest.

3. That we heartily approve the action of the Executive Committee of the Church Erection Board in authorizing the creation of the City Mission Fund.

4. That we appreciate the untiring efforts of Dr. H. S. Gabel and Rev. H. A. Sechrist, to make this department of our Church life tell for the greatest good, and pray God's blessing upon them.

Respectfully submitted,

HARRY H. YOHE, Committee.

Rev. H. A. Sechrist spoke on the necessity and helpfulness of this department of the Church.

Dr. G. P. Macklin also spoke on the subject.

The report was adopted.

The report on Sabbath Observance was read by Rev. E. J. Arthur. The report was adopted.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

Very early in the history of God's dealings with mankind he prepared a day of rest and worship, sanctified it that it should be kept for his own purpose, and said, "Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy. Six days shalt thou labour and do all thy work; but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy manservant, nor thy maidservant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates; for in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the Lord blessed the Sabbath day and hallowed it."

This command is as imperative as when it first became a part of God's divine plan. The punishment for desecration then was death. Surely God still looks with a jealous eye on his own plan and marks every desecration of the same, and will meet out proper punishment for the same, since "obedience is better than sacrifice." Therefore, be it Resolved, 1. That since Jesus said, "If ye love me keep my commandments," we will manifest our love to our divine Lord and Master by remembering the Sabbath day to keep it holy.

2. We deplore the fact that there is such a widespread desecration of the Sabbath day throughout our land, and will endeavor to discourage the same as far as possible.

3. That we discountenance Sunday excursions and ball games and regard them as demoralizing and harmful.

4. We are pained to see the continual violation of the laws of God and man by the open saloon on the Sabbath day, and to know that mayors of cities and municipalities disregard law and their oath of office in not enforcing the Sunday-closing law.

5. That we have suffered a great loss in the death of the governor of our great State, who, we believe, would have caused strict enforcement of the Sunday law throughout the State, but bow in humble submission to the will of God, and hope and pray that our present governor will remember his oath of office.

Respectfully submitted,

E. J. Arthur, Committee.

Dayton First Church was voted the privilege of applying their Conference church extension assessment and one-half of their assessment for home missions to the support of any home mission charge in the Conference which they may desire to support, the same to be known as the mission of this church.

The following communication from the Riverdale Church, Dayton, was read and referred to the Committee on Finance.

To the Miami Conference.

DEAR BRETHREN: At a session of the official board of the Riverdale United Brethren Church, by unanimous action, it was agreed to inform the Conference that the church would no longer need the assistance of a missionary appropriation. Furthermore, the secretary was instructed to express to the Conference the church's deep sense of gratitude for the aid rendered in the past, making it possible to establish itself, and especially for the wise policy of not withdrawing aid at that period of its growth when it would have interfered with its prosperity.

H. F. SHUPE, Sec'y of the Board.

W. M. VanSickle was chosen to fill the vacancy on the Conference Church Extension Board. Term expires 1911.

Dr. J. P. Miller, Dr. J. G. Huber, and Dr. W. J. Shuey were continued as the Committee on Foreign Missions.

The Educational Committee was continued for next year. Rev. J. P. Landis, D.D., Rev. D. Berger, D.D., and Rev. Wm. McKee, D.D., are this committee.

W. J. Shuey was chosen a member of the Court of Appeals.

W. M. VanSickle was elected Branch Church Erection and Missionary Secretary.

The Bishop appointed J. H. Mayne, W. J. Pruner, and W. C. Niswonger a Committee on Bible Cause.

H. H. Yohe was elected Conference Sunday-School Secretary and Treasurer.

The report of the Committee on Resolutions was read and adopted.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS.

Resolved, 1. That we return our thanks to our Heavenly Father for the privilege of completing another year of service in his vineyard, and of having this opportunity of comparing our several labors in this our ninety-seventh annual session.

2. That we thank the pastor and the people of this church for the kind entertainment which they have given us.

3. That we tender our thanks to the Rev. J. S. Kendall, of Cleveland, for the inspiring spiritual messages to which we have listened during the sessions of this Conference.

4. That we feel honored by having Bishop J. S. Mills to preside again over our session, and feel greatly helped by his exposition of the truth of God.

5. That we are grateful to the Dayton daily papers for the excellent reports given by their reporters in their columns.

Respectfully submitted,

E. J. BLACKBURN, Committee.

It was ordered that the Conference shall adjourn sine die on Monday, August 20, at 9:00 A.M.

H. H. Fout was chosen Conference Corresponding Secretary of Union Biblical Seminary.

D. Berger, D.D., was reëlected Corresponding Member of the United Brethren Historical Society.

The Saturday evening service began with a service of song, which was continued for fifteen minutes. Prayer by Rev. M. F. Hawley. Dr. G. P. Macklin had charge of the service. Rev. J. S. Kendall spoke on I. John 3:1-3, "The Second Coming of Christ" being his theme. This doctrine awakens a love for God's Word. What if Christ were to come to our church to-day? How carefully we should live who look for our Lord's coming again! The sermon was a clear presentation of the premillennial doctrine of Christ's second coming. Brother Andreas sang, "The Lord shall come again." Benediction by Dr. G. P. Macklin.

SABBATH SERVICES.

The Sabbath school met at 9:00 A.M., superintended by Prof. M. A. Honline, State Teacher-Training Secretary.

Most of the classes were taught by the ministers in attendance. Over 300 were in attendance. The collection was $37.

The local choir rendered a beautiful anthem, and Bishop Mills read as a Scripture lesson Matt. 6:19-34.

Prayer by Presiding Elder J. L. Swain. The collection, taken as per vote of the Conference, amounted to $29.67.

An immense audience listened with rapt attention, in spite of the heat and crowded house, to the Bishop's earnest, eloquent, and spiritual sermon on Matt. 6: 19, 20.

At the close of the sermon, Mrs. Ella Bailey and Charles F. Meyer were ordained to the office of an elder by the laying on of hands, conducted by the Bishop, assisted by G. P. Macklin, the outgoing presiding elder, and C. W. Kurtz and J. L. Swain, presiding elders-elect.

The report of the Stationing Committee was read by Rev. C. W. Kurtz.

At 2: 30 P.M., the Conference love feast and praise service was conducted by Rev. J. W. Flory, and was a spiritual uplift to both ministers and laymen, many of whom participated.

At 6: 30 P.M., the Y. P. C. U. meeting was conducted by Dr. J. G. Huber, the President of the General Young People's Christian Union of our Church, in his usual happy manner.

The closing service was held at 7: 30 P.M., Rev. J. S. Kendall preaching the sermon, which was a warm, inspiring message. The addresses and sermons of Brother Kendall during the Conference were highly appreciated by all.

The singing, as directed by Brother Andreas during the sessions of the Conference, was appropriate, sprightly, and spiritual. The singing by the local choir, the Conference Quartet, and the solos and duets by Mr. Andreas and Rev. O. F. Bilger were all of a high order.

The organists, Edith Homer and Fannie Cusick, were prompt and efficient in their service.

The pastor, W. T. Frank, and his people were most excellent hosts, looking carefully after every detail that could add to the comfort of the pastors, delegates, and visitors.

The attendance at the business, as well as the devotional services, from the surrounding charges and the town of Brookville, taxed the capacity of the beautiful new church to its utmost. Frequently all the standing-room was taken, in spite of the torrid weather.

The reports of pastors were almost uniformly good, showing painstaking work on their part, and loyalty to the Church on the part of the membership.

There was an increase of 540 in membership, there being 109 organized churches, a gain of two this year; Sunday-school scholars, increase, 464; 92 in Y. P. C. U. and Junior members; $1,462 more for missions, home and foreign, than last year. The increase for pastors' and presiding elders' support was $3,152. Total for all purposes, $133,950, an increase of $24,051.

This is as it should be, but should we not, with the general officers of the Church, the Union Biblical Seminary faculty and students in our midst; with 90 ministers and 14,415 members in our territory; with country, village, and city needs appealing to us, should we not go forward? "Be strong and of good courage" (Josh. 1: 3-9).

W. M. VanSickle, Recording Secretary.
W. C. Niswonger, Statistical Secretary.
J. S. Mills, Bishop.

LORENZ'S CHOIR MUSIC

THE CHOIR LEADER

Editor, E. S. LORENZ Associates, E. L. ASHFORD, and J. S. FEARIS

This journal brings every month four to six new, good anthems of high artistic style, but medium in grade for trained quartet or chorus choirs. It is recognized as the leading journal of its kind in the world, in both quality of music and wideness of use.

These anthems are fresh American music, not English reprints. They are reprinted in England, and widely diffused there, a tribute to their intrinsic value.

The Christmas (November) number has a magnificent lot of Christmas anthems by Ashford, Fearis and Lorenz.

THE CHOIR HERALD

Editor, E. S. LORENZ Associates, CHAS H. GABRIEL, L. O. EMERSON, and MRS. CARRIE B. ADAMS

This journal furnishes every month from five to eight numbers of an easy grade, exactly adapted to the needs of the average choir with few trained voices and limited time for practice. It will therefore also appeal to the tastes and needs of the average congregation. It now has the largest circulation of any choir publication in the world, and its music is sung with enthusiasm every month by the largest body of singers in civilization.

The Christmas (November) number will have brilliant Christmas anthems by Emerson, Lorenz, Wilson, and Ashford.
